

WORKSHOPS

Next round of workshops for Dance Companies is just around the corner in Viminacium (SB), Merida (ES), Volos (GR), Ostia (IT) for its first round and Tharros (IT).

In all the involved communities the workshop is addressed to a wide spectrum of people: elder people, young people, people with disabilities, meaning any range of the active population in the communities.

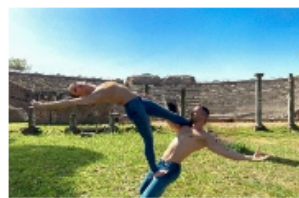

Particularly, there is a strong interest for young people having previous knowledge on dance and theatre, as an opportunity for new learning experience on dancing techniques and acting approaches and above all, to promote the interaction between the dance companies, students and local professionals, in order to learn and understand needs and concerns of each other. Together with a planned visit to archaeological spaces so that visitors can make progresses structuring their performing approach during Dancing History(y)ies Festival. Video diaries and communication materials to be collected in order to share this emotional

DH Festivals pressconference presentation – Rome

Dancing History(y)ies Festivals are about to start and we have proudly announced the calendar during a general press conference held in Rome on May 23rd. Here is the complete DH Festival Calendar.

25 May - 25/27 July	Parco Archeologico di Ostia Antica
24/26 June	Viminacium Arheološki park
05/07 July	Festival de Teatro Clásico de Mérida
